Delta Management Associates, Inc. Names Christopher Riordan President

(CHELSEA, April 2, 2013) – Delta Management Associates, Inc. (Delta), a premier provider of tailored recovery solutions to the debt management community, is pleased to announce the promotion of Christopher Riordan to President. In his new position, Christopher is responsible for developing and implementing Delta’s ongoing business strategy and ensuring the availability and commitment of the corporate resources necessary for Delta’s continued success.

“My commitment to our customers is continuing to foster strong partnerships and developing comprehensive solutions that meet their needs in this dynamic economic environment,” said President, Christopher Riordan.

Christopher has more than 21 years of debt management industry experience and has served in progressive roles during his tenure with Delta, most recently serving as Delta’s senior vice president. He has developed and implemented strategic initiatives enhancing all aspects of Delta’s operations management, business strategy and business development, promoting client satisfaction, and ensuring maximum performance on client projects, which have had a significant impact on Delta’s year-over-year financial growth.

“Christopher’s promotion is part of Delta’s commitment to continuing our 27-year legacy as a family-owned, niche provider of recovery solutions,” said CEO, Michael Riordan. “His ability to positively shape the Delta brand is imperative to the company’s future growth.”
